BERING SEA CLAIMS.

British Ambassador Will Confer With the Canadian Marine Minister. If Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British

as is anticipated, writ Canada before his return to Washington, it is not likely that the Canadian minister of marine will later in the season meet Bir Julian here, as was expected, when the latter sailed for Europe last June.

It was then the purpose that the Canadian minister of marine should have a con-ference with reference to the new treaty which will be negotiated between the British Ambassador and Secretary Olney. looking to the settlement of the claims of certain Canadian seal fishermen in Ber-ing Sea, against the United States, under the terms of the Paris award.

While the Canadian government, as such, will have no hand in the preparation of the treaty, it is intended that their wishes shall be learned and respected, so far as circumstances will permit. Sir Julian said several months ago that a personal conference with the Canadian min-ister of marine of even forty-eight hours, would greatly facilitate the work of drafting the treaty. It is believed, therefore, that he desires to save the latter the trouble of coming on to Washington in October, by visiting Ottawa instead and there acquainting himself with the wishes of the Canadian people. A letter received at the British Embusy from Sir Julian contains the intelligence that he will sail from Southampton Sep-tember 12. Should be visit Canada en route, he will not probably reach Washington much, if any, before the last of that month.

PARTNERS IN TROUBLE.

Plucky Theodore Bright and His Brave Little Better Half.
Theodore Bright and his handsome but inburnt wife, Ada, spent their honeymo in a rather curious manner. Ada is twenty-two and Theodore is twenty-six. They have been married but a short time and have had nothing but trouble ever since. They reached this city at 2 a. m. Thursday, footsore and weary, accosted a stranger and asked him for a place to rest, and were directed to the Bethel

Early in the morning Superintendent Ray-mond found the pair awaiting his arrival, and husband and wife alternated in telling Their home is in Trenton, N. J., and Bright ras employed in a pottery. Shortly after their marriage the pottery shut down and he was unable to find other work, so the couple packed up their little traps and moved to Cincinnati, where Bright had negotiated for a place in a pottery.

The money as fast as earned went for fur-niture to furnish the little home they had rented, and when they imagined that everything was bright and rosy the Cincinnati pottery closed and they were once more Too proud to turn to his relatives in the East, he sold all the furniture, piece by piece, then the clothes, his own and his wife's, and when there was nothing else left but the clothes they had on their backs, he made up his mind to walk back to Trenton and send for his bride.

"I'll go with you," the plucky little wife said, and two weeks ago Thursday they started. On the way they did odd jobs for meals among farmers and others, and at nightfall they selected some barn undisturbed by the presence of a dog or some nice, quiet place near a hay stack and went to sleep. Their intention was to resume their "You might stand walking 650 more miles," Superintendent Raymond said, "but your wife will not be able to bear the strain.

colored man, whose principal occupation erwise maltreating two fine dogs belong-ing to the minister, and which are confined in the back yard of his residence. To the neighbors in this populous square, bounded by Twentieth street and Hillyes place. Twenty-first and Q streets, these bru-tal proceedings are distressing and asnoying beyond description. Gentlemen and their families have repeatedly remonstrated with the negro, who seems inspired with a baired for the unhappy animals, only to be met with insolent defiance. He asserts his independence of any author-ity but that of the minister, and even alleges it is by that gentleman's orders he punishes the dogs. Of course it would appear incredible that such should be the truth, but in any event the painful experiences of the neighbors are likely to be continued un-til some action or influence stronger than the efforts of the health office or Humane Society is invoked.

The attention of these usually efficient agencies has been often directed to the case, but they are powerless, handicapped as they are by the diplomatic exemption, to arrest and punish the offender, and to release the veritable suffering of the numan residents, to say nothing of the poor dogs.

In one case, a lady in the block, who has since died, was during her illness most grievously disturbed by the distressing howls of the canine victims, and that was many month sago. The health office was of the humane society were barred from action by the diplomatic protection, which bedges in secure from interference this Erutal employe.

Instances are not wanting where the Department of State has been appealed to by diplomats whose sensibilities have been ruffled by criticisms in American news-ppaers. Now, as this incident has been rought to the attention of the Swedish that the State Department will be ap-
